More Information

Looking for a simple web browsing tool with amazing multimedia features, then the NB100 Netbook is all you need and more besides.

Ideal to browse the web or check on emails the NB100 is built to be a solid mobile companion, with a tough and stylish chassis that has everything you need to surf the web wirelessly, check your mails, work on documents or enjoy music, photos or videos, plus share it with all others.

The NB100 has a 8.9" Trubrite screen which produces rich colours, clearer pictures and sharper text and weighs in at just under 1kg! to keep it truly mobile.

It has a extremely useful battery life with up to 3 and a half hours life on a standard 3 cell, so you can spend more time browsing and less time charging. A huge 120GB hard drive means all your storage needs are met and the USB Sleep Charge allows devices such as phones to be charged even when the Netbook is in sleep mode. A eSATA/USB Combo port also allows for ultra fast downloads.
